Oxfordshire Artweeks 2023

Welcome to Oxfordshire Artweeks 2023 which begins with a coronation: we're delighted to present a festival fit for a King!

From the traditional to the contemporary and multidisciplinary, across the county there's something to delight, intrigue and inspire everyone. Explore painting, sculpture, ceramics and printmaking; look out for fashion and furniture; discover glass art, mosaics and other marvels; and perhaps choose a treasure or two to take home with you.

Within these pages you will find a variety of types of exhibition, all of which are free to visit – simply drop in during their opening hours. Some artists team up to host group shows while others open their studios (look for the OS throughout this guide). All welcome you both to enjoy the art on show and to chat about their materials, methods and inspiration. At most venues, some of which are extraordinary in themselves, you can meet the artist or maker. If you are keen to see a particular person, please call ahead to confirm they will be there when you visit. In some places there are also demonstrations and you'll also find some excellent cake (look for the D and R respectively throughout this guide).

Thank you for supporting Oxfordshire's artist community.

The Oxford Art Society was founded in 1891 and is an umbrella for accomplished artists with diverse and exciting styles living in Oxfordshire, many of whom also exhibit nationally or internationally. We hold regular exhibitions, and welcome submissions towards membership at our annual Open Exhibition. Look for the initials OAS in this guide to find members' work. For more information visit www.oxfordartsociety.co.uk

The Oxfordshire Craft Guild draws together designer-makers representing a wide range of traditional and contemporary crafts, and holds temporary and permanent exhibitions throughout the county. Membership, which is by selection, is a sign of the finest design ability and highest quality craftsmanship. Look out for the initials OCG in this guide to find Guild Members' work. For further information go to www.ocg.co.uk or www.facebook.com/oxfordshirecraftguild.

West Ox Arts is a lively association of artists and art enthusiasts, many of whom take part in exhibitions alongside artists invited from across the UK. Our Gallery is an inspiring, light-filled venue that sells a wide range of contemporary, high quality art and offers various workshops, demonstrations and special events throughout the year. We are situated in the first floor of Bampton's Town Hall in the Market Square. For more information or to become a member of WOA visit www.westoxarts.com. You can also find us on facebook at www.facebook.com/westoxarts

Oxford Printmakers Co-operative (OPC) has been running for over 40 years and is an open access Fine Art Print workshop offering a high standard of printmaking facilities. It currently has 100 members many of whom are professional artists exhibiting in the UK and abroad. As well as holding regular exhibitions, OPC runs courses in many of the print processes: such as linocut & woodcut, wood engraving, etching, monoprinting, screenprinting, collagraphy and stone lithography. These courses are open to anyone with an interest in printmaking. OPC also offers different membership options for accessing workshop facilities and equipment, and new members are always welcome. Look for the initials OPC in this guide to find members work. For more information go to:

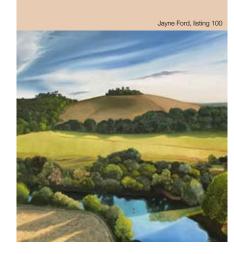

www.oxfordprintmakers.co.uk

The Oxford Art Society, Oxfordshire Craft Guild, West Ox Arts and Oxford Printmakers Co-operative are dynamic groups of artists and makers whom we are proud to support. Look out for these initials throughout this festival guide.

Introducing artist Sue Smith

Artist Sue Smith (aka /Mcshoesue) is the winner of the 2023 Artweeks Mary Moser Award, an annual award established to honour the late Mary Moser's commitment to Artweeks and to further the career of a professional artist who has taken up art as a second career later in life.

Sue was previously a front-line worker supporting vulnerable adults, the homeless and refugees. She found drawing an escape as she transferred deep-rooted issues around the loss of security onto paper.

Her expansive energetic cityscapes are drawn primarily in pen and ink: hundreds of houses and buildings line imagined streets, often dystopic, and a sense of humanity underpins each. A non-conformist approach to perspective draws in the viewer.

"Our brains don't think in a linear way, and they process multiple perspectives at one: that's what I'm trying to encourage," Sue explains. The undefined edges add a sense of dynamism which hint at a story still unresolved.

While Sue's drawings are metaphors for insecurity, destruction and vulnerability, her 3D 'maps' are neither dark nor melancholic. "I'd like to think my cityscapes offer hope," she says, "because if there's a map, then there's a way out. We can all help someone to find it."

You can see Sue's work in St John the Evangelist Cloister Gallery,

Iffley Road, Oxford (venue 367) alongside art by other artists and an exhibition of many artist postcards which are being auctioned to raise funds for Sobell House Hospice.

Established in 1891 for professional artists in Oxford

Oxford Art Society invites artists living or working within a 30-mile radius of Oxford to enter their work for the annual Open Exhibition which usually takes place at the SJE Cloister Gallery in late Summer.

Young Artists (aged 17-25) are encouraged to enter the Competition.

All work is subject to selection.

The committee of the OAS will offer membership to selected artists who have had work accepted for at least two Open Exhibitions.
